

HOLY CITY WANDERER

Collaborate & Build Camaraderie
With A Fun, Innovative Twist

“ I have no hesitation when saying it was the definitive highlight of our global sales summit. Since our Scavenger Hunt, the lines of communication and sense of camaraderie have vastly improved. This even goes for folks who work half a world away – conference calls with our peers are a bit more jovial now that we've had the chance to get to know one another in such a fun and dynamic way. ”

— Ashley C., Strategic Program Manager, Cisco

Picture this: you and your team connecting and collaborating while dashing through Charleston, solving puzzles, capturing quirky photos, and creating laugh-out-loud videos. That's what you'll get with the Holy City Wanderer—an experience that shows you an amazing time while educating you about the historic city of Charleston, South Carolina. It's a GPS-powered adventure marrying thrills and excitement with strategy, communication, and discovery.

This uniquely nonsequential scavenger hunt gives you the freedom to choose your own adventure! Wander in any direction, take on challenges in the order you prefer, and enjoy breaks to indulge in local flavors or soak in the charm of Charleston at your leisure. It's your story, and every choice you make adds a new, exciting chapter!

Embark upon the ultimate test of group strategy filled with joy, camaraderie, and unforgettable memories! Oh, and don't worry about the weather: come rain or shine, we've got you covered, ensuring your adventure continues no matter what.
